

Cathedral House, Dresden

Alexander Pöttsch Architekten

The cathedral building of the Roman Catholic Church is located in the centre of Dresden. A design of metal ceilings in triangular pyramid cassettes by Alexander Pöttsch Architekten has a breathtaking effect. The combination of the cassettes with the cross-shaped luminaires gives the interior an unmistakable character that further emphasises the majesty of this unique place.

Object data

Perforation

Colour:

Surface metal ceiling:

System:

Function:

Smooth

Parzifal light white

211 m<sup>2</sup>

Clip-in system, pyramid-shaped cassettes

Acoustics, Design

